I am glad to note that HITEX-Hyderabad International Trade Expositions Limited in association with FAPCCI is organizing 5th HITEX International Machine Tool Expo 2014 from 4th-6th September, 2014 at HITEX Exhibition Centre, Hyderabad. FAPCCI has been continuously associating with HITEX for the Machine Tool Expo and found that the exhibitions are of immense use to showcase and understand the latest machine tool technology, products and leverage the benefit by reaching the target audience.

Growth of the machine tools industry has an immense bearing on the entire manufacturing industry which is also crucial for the country's strategic requirement. HITEX International Machine Tool Expo have been contributing immensely in the growth of Machine Tool industry in the State and region by bringing the buyers and sellers in one platform.

I am sure expositions like this will benefit largely especially to SMEs and I appeal all the stake holders of the industry to make the best use of this opportunity by supporting landmark event.
